BOTH GROWERS AND BUYERS ENTHUSIASTIC OVER The Benthall Peanut Picker

Peanut growers and buyers alike declare the Benthall Peanut Picker the only absolutely satisfactory picker made.

Growers do the work of forty men with one machine, and more than double their profits. It picks Spanish or Virginia varieties with equal satisfaction. It picks while the vines are in a condition for saving, thus giving a crop as good as alfalfa. Buyers declare Benthall picked nuts cleaner and much more desirable than hand picked nuts.

Vines are fed to picker like grain to thrasher. Nuts come out whole and clean. The stemming and cleaning capacity has been increased, and the weak parts in the 1909 models corrected. 13 ft. model run by horse or applied power; 16 ft. model applied power only.

All horsepower machines will have 1908 shoe or shaker, and we will build machines if desired with 1910 general construction and 1908 shoe or shaker.

Standard Peanut Co. buyers say: "It is a standing rule with our buyers to give preference to machine picked peanuts, as in our opinion they are far superior." W. F. Jones, grower, writes: "Threshed 173 sacks of Virginia nuts in one day. Can thresh 100 to 125 sacks Spanish." E. J. Bailey: "I threshed 1609 bags with repair bill of only 75 cents."

Big money picking for your neighbors. Write for free booklet giving pictures and full information. It will mean much in profits for you.

"Good By, God Bless You."

I like the Angol-Saxon speech With its direct revealing; It takes a hold, and seems to reach Way down into our feelings. That some folks deem it rude, we all know, And therefore they abuse it, But I have never found it so— Before all else I choose it. I don't object that man should air The Gallic they have paid for, With "Au revoir," "Adieu ma Chere," For that's what French was made for; But when a croney takes your hand At parting to address you, He drops all foreign lingo and He says, "Good-bye, God bless you!"

This seems to me a scored phrase, With reverence impassioned; A thing come down from righteous days, Quaintly but nobly fashioned. It well becomes an honest face, A voice that's round and cheerful. It stays the sturdy in his place And soothes the weak and fearful. Into the porches of the ears It steals with subtle unction, And in your heart of hearts appears To work its glorious functions. And all day long with pleasing song It lingers to caress you; I'm sure no human heart goes wrong That's told "Good-bye, God bless you!"

I love the words perhaps because When I was leaving mother, Standing at last in solemn pause We looked at one another. And I—I saw in mother's eyes The love she could not tell me, A love eternal as the skies, Whatever fate befell me; She put her arms around my neck, And soothed the pain of leaving. And though her heart was like to break She spoke no word of grieving. She let me tear bedim her eye, For fear that might distress me, But kissing me, she said "goodbye," And ask our God to bless me. —Eugene Field.

HANDICAPPED.

This is the Case With Many Scotland Neck People.

Too many Scotland Neck citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief, but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. The following statement should convince every Scotland Neck reader of their efficiency.

J. Frank Powell, West Tarboro, N. C., says: "Last spring I had an attack of La Grippe and after that I suffered from backache and pains across my loins. Standing so much, I believe was the cause of my trouble. If I stooped or lifted, sharp pains darted through my body and I felt miserable. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and I can say that they gave me more relief than any other remedy I had ever tried. The use of one box removed all symptoms of my trouble and I have not had a return attack. Doan's Kidney Pills have certainly done me a great amount of good and I am pleased to recommend them."

The Judge About Right.

We are inclined to agree with Judge Cook with reference to the management of children at school, especially boys, some of whom need to be severely disciplined.

Unfortunately some parent, no matter how unruly the boy, will incline their ear to the tale of the youngster, and the boy is quick to take notice this condition and work it overtime with prejudice to his teacher and injury to the boy.

The old admonition, "if you are whipped at school, you will get another when you return home" has kept many a licking off at both places and materially assisted both teacher and boy with their work. We quote from Judge Cook's charge to the jury in his court held in Raleigh some time ago.

"You had as well undertake to break a heard of bull yearlings with small twine in the place of ropes as to try to control many-hard-head boys, without allowing teachers to use the lash," declared Judge Chas. A. Cook, in a unique charge to a jury in Wake superior court. Counsel for the defense of prisoner at the bar, a 15-year-old negro boy, charged with attacking his teacher with a knife while she was administering corporal punishment, had suggested to the court that there was a law in Wake county against teachers being permitted to administer corporal punishment. Judge Cooke declared that he had no sympathy for any limitation to the power of school teachers to control children under their training. The judge said that the public schools were one of the finest demonstrations of the philanthropy of the people everybody, whether they had children to educate or not, contributing to the maintenance of the school; the teachers selected by competent committees for each district, were supposed to be competent in training, temperament and in other ways, and that when installed as teachers in the schools they were entitled to the fullest co-operation of the parents in maintaining order and promoting the best interests of the schools. The courthouse was packed with people during the charge, which seemed to make profound impression, especially on the negroes who were gathered to watch the progress of the case. The jury found the boy guilty of the assault. The judge has not yet passed sentence.—Wilson Times.
